Miles and Merc

Miles is a space adventurer who's always ready for action. He blasts through the Universe with his best friend, Merc, a robo-ostrich. Together they journey to new worlds, discover alien creatures, and make galactic discoveries!

Callisto Family

Miles - Space adventurer
 Phoebe - Captain and mom
 Leo - Inventor, pilot and dad
 Loretta - Computer expert and sister
 Merc - Robo-ostrich and best friend

Tomorrowland Transit Authority

The Tomorrowland Transit Authority (TTA) sent Miles and his family to live and work in outer space. The TTA's goal is to repair broken spacecraft, make new interstellar friends, create an interplanetary superhighway, and above all, connect the Universe!

Admirals Crick and Watson

Admirals Crick and Watson from the Tomorrowland Transit Authority assign the Callistos all of their missions. This two-headed alien team may share the same body, but the two heads often disagree. Very loudly.

Phoebe Callisto

Captain Callisto is also Captain Mom and runs the ship with a warm heart, high standards, and a take-charge personality. A born leader, Phoebe sets a great example and encourages her family on every mission.

Leo Callisto

Miles' dad is an awesome inventor, pilot, and former pro-surfer. He's laid back and can stay utterly cool, even when flying through space junk. A passionate engineer, he's never afraid to try something new in his workshop.

Loretta Callisto

Loretta researches and records new discoveries and has the answer to almost any question in the Universe right on her wrist with her Bracelex. She's a brilliant computer coder and a great older sister to Miles. She always has his back.

Captain Joe

Captain of the Spaceguard, Joe Callisto is committed to intergalactic justice and rides a Hoverbike built for speed. Uncle to Miles and Loretta, he's super confident, cool, and was born to take on any mission!

Blodger Blopp

One of Miles' best friends. Blodger is as gleeful as he is gelatinous. He loves collecting space junk and racing his very own spacecraft. Though his habits are sometimes funny and quirky, it's always blastastic when he's around!

Gadfly

Gadfly Garnett is an intergalactic, villainous alien thief. He's a legend in his own mind (but nobody else's). He always wants the latest and greatest tech-toys and gadgets, even if it means breaking into a secret research lab to get them.

Laserang

Miles is the sole beta tester for this amazing multi-functional tool! With one touch, the Laserang helps Miles snag things that are out of reach, whack a path through an alien jungle, or even go zip-lining over a ravine!

Bracelex

Loretta wears this holographic high-tech journal to document her intergalactic discoveries. When exploring the Universe, it sure helps to have this ever-expanding database right on your wrist!

BlastBoard

Miles uses this hovering skateboard to propel him at turbo-speeds through space! It beams out of his BlastBuckle whenever he needs it and can do tons of cool tricks. Miles says riding his BlastBoard is like surfing in the sky!

Stellosphere

The Callisto family calls this super high-tech starship home. Its artificial intelligence system, called Stella, keeps the family posted about everything an interstellar family needs to know!

StarJetter

The StarJetter is the Callisto family's shuttle for all short-range planetary exploration. A small and nimble vessel, it is the family's most versatile vehicle for key missions.

Photon Flyer

Built by Miles for a space race derby, this two-seater vehicle has become Miles and Merc's go-to mode of transportation. This spacecraft zips from zero to hyper-speed in .4 seconds!
