

Counting Stars

How many stars do you see? Count the stars and write the number in the light blue box located in the bottom right-hand corner.

Wow, there are so many.

Create Your Own Pigeon Door Hanger!

It's easy—and fun—to make this double-sided door hanger. Cut out along the dotted line, apply glue to the back of each piece, and then glue the two pieces together.

Help Pigeon Go To Sleep

Circle the item in the group that will best help Pigeon to fall asleep.

Hint: My bunny wants to stay up late, too.

How to Draw the Pigeon

The most important thing to remember is that there's no "right" way to draw The Pigeon, except to make you have fun! The more you draw, the better you will get!

HERE'S HOW I DO IT IN TEN STEPS:

1. I draw a circle for the eye.

2. I draw a bigger circle around the first one for the head.

3. I draw an eyeball inside of the first circle. This is important, because where you place the eye (in the middle, up, down, or to the side) will determine how the Pigeon feels!

4. The beak is basically two triangles, one on top of the other. It's another important place to figure out how he's feeling. If the beak line is up, he's smiling, if it's down, he's sad.

5. I draw two lines straight down for the neck.

6. Don't forget the two lines across for the collar.

7. The body is a kind of half circle that meets the neck.

8. The wing is a smaller version of the body.

9. The legs and feet are two straight lines with two upside-down letter V's attached.

10. I look at my drawing and feel proud!

Once you get the basic drawing down, try variations. Move his beak, his wings, and his legs to see how many emotions you can get!
